MoU for hands-on training being signed by EFY and RCET representatives

EFY and RCET join hands to impart hands-on training

Rungta College of Engineering and Technology (RCET), one of the top 55 engineering colleges of the country, has entered into a MoU with EFY Enterprises to offer specialised hands-on training on electronics and allied subjects. Under this MoU, RCET will open an EFY Tech Center at Bhilai to offer EFY-designed training programmes.

EFY will guide RCET to set up relevant facilities including training of their instructors/trainers for the purpose of conducting hands-on training and workshops. It will also provide the required course material to RCET and help them install the required development tools.

Courses will be conducted on the basics of electronics, Microchip PIC16F877A/PIC18F4455 and ATMEL 8051 microcontrollers, robotics, embedded systems and PCB design.
