

MECO Instruments Pvt Ltd

MECO is an ISO9001:2000 certified company providing time-tested, reliable and affordable instruments for the last four decades. Customer focus, innovation and technological excellence are the key concerns at MECO. The company has a team of 100 skilled personnel and is equipped with a state-of-the-art research and development wing that is recognised by Department of Scientific & Industrial Research, Ministry of Science & Technology, Government of India.

MECO's network of over 100 dealers effectively channel its products in the entire Indian subcontinent. The company's products are exported to almost all the continents through local agents and representatives.

The company supports Bureau of Energy Efficiency (BEE), the Government of India's mission to institutionalise certification of electric/electronics goods for ECOMARK/STAR RATING under the Gazette of India. MECO has introduced SMPS AC/DC power supplies in many of its models of digital panel meters and transducers to provide greater flexibility and reliability to its customers.
