

AN EFY EXCLUSIVE

Calling for NOMINATIONS

...for the awards the Indian electronics industry loves to fight for!

March 16, 2012, Bengaluru

For the first time in its history, the winners of ALL the EFY Awards will be nominated by YOU!

Earlier, 27 EFY Awards were exclusively Readers' Choice Awards. Only the 'Electronics Man of the Year', the 'Electronics Organisation of the Year' and the 'Lifetime Achievement Award' were considered

Jury Awards*, with those in the running being nominated by a select group of eminent leaders from the electronics industry. But not any longer! It's now you, our readers, members of India's electronics firms, who can nominate YOUR choices for these three awards too.

Leading companies that have won the prestigious EFY Jury Awards over the past few years include CDIL, Moser Baer, Nokia, Onida, Samsung, Samtel, Tata BP Solar, Tejas Networks, Videocon and ZTE Telecom.

For the 27 awards that have traditionally always been based on the 'Readers' Choice,' self-nomination will not be possible. Firms interested in getting nominated will have to reach out to our readers in a bid to get nominated.

BENGALURU HAS BEEN SELECTED AS THE VENUE FOR THE 2011 EFY AWARDS BECAUSE IT IS CONSIDERED THE ELECTRONICS CITY OF INDIA.
