

AVECO eGuru

Make Your Classroom Interactive with AVECO eGuru Interactive Products

Perfect for business and education

Teachers these days are advocating the use of interactive white boards as a new and effective way of classroom teaching. With enriched multimedia content, simulations and fun stuff, this technology has lent a totally new dimension to instructor-based classroom delivery. Using AVECO eGuru modern, electronic white boards, teachers can manage content better, make a classroom connection to the Internet and also save presentations for use as pod casts for remote students etc.

- More neutral interaction between humans and computer using an innovative multimedia solution (in partnership with Pen N Free (PNF))
- Convert any existing surface to interactive
