

areas for developing electronic system design and manufacturing (ESDM) and hardware units.

According to the draft IT policy papers, apart from infrastructure support, help to small and large investors to set up hardware and ESDM units will be provided through fiscal benefits such as reduced electricity tariffs and faster clearances. Senior officials report that the corpus of the state venture capital fund is likely to be increased from Rs 50 million to Rs 100 million to help IT start-ups.

Panasonic eyes 15 per cent of the flat-panel TVs market

Panasonic has expanded its smart TV portfolio in India with 30 new models of LEDs, LCDs and plasma line-up.

Talking about the new marketing strategy for VIERA flat panels, Manish Sharma, managing director, consumer product division, Panasonic India, said, "Panasonic is betting on flat-panel televisions that bring in over 40 per cent of revenue. Our range of LED, LCD and plasma TVs branded as SMART VIERA is the first engine growth driver for Panasonic's business. Primarily tar-
