

64GB SDXC Card for Photo Enthusiasts

Resilient and durable, the new SanDisk SDXC memory card is designed to withstand the toughest conditions

SanDisk Corporation has launched its latest high capacity 64GB SDXC Class 4 memory card. The 64GB SDXC card is claimed to be ideal for photo enthusiasts who would like a larger storage device for their pictures and HD videos. The card offers fast data transfer, rugged durability and plenty of space for thousands of high-resolution photos or videos, according to the company.

The card comes in a video rating of Class 4, and is available in a 64GB capacity. The card is waterproof, shockproof and X-ray proof, and can operate in temperatures ranging from -25 to +85 degrees Celsius, so users can capture memories in almost any climate.

The SanDisk SDXC memory card is backed by a five-year limited warranty.

Price: ₹ 3900

Dual-SIM Smartphone with Powerful Processor

HTC Desire U comes with updated and eye-catching features

HTC unveils another phone in the Desire family. The newly launched HTC Desire U features a 10.2cm (4-inch) WVGA display with 480×800 pixels resolution. The phone is 9.32mm thick and weighs 119 gms. It is based on the Android 4.0 ICS OS allowing seamless multitasking. It is powered by 1GHz processor and 512MB RAM that helps to enhance the overall performance and speed of the phone.

This dual-SIM phone has a 5MP auto focus camera which is Flash enabled. If you are fond of collecting information and storing the same then you can store it all in the 4GB internal memory and in the expandable 32GB memory.

For all Internet freaks who like to chat the whole day the good news is that it is Wi-Fi enabled along with GPS. You can connect to your virtual world and stay in touch wherever you go. You can also transfer and share files with the help of USB port and Bluetooth. It runs on a powerful 1650mAh battery that keeps you on for longer hours.

Price: ₹ 13,499

Android Smartphone with Unlimited Voice and Data Benefits

Powered by a Qualcomm Snapdragon 1GHz processor, MTS Duet is based on Android 2.3 Gingerbread Sistema Shyam TeleServices Ltd (SSTL) has launched MTS Duet—the dual-SIM (CDMA+GSM) smartphone. Powered by a Qualcomm Snapdragon S1 processor featuring a 1GHz CPU with integrated CDMA, the new addition to the MTS Smartphone portfolio runs on Android 2.3 Gingerbread.

MTS Duet comes packed with an 8.89cm (3.5-inch) 320×480 (HVGA) pixels display with capacitive touch. The smartphone is powered by the Snapdragon S1 processor featuring a 1GHz CPU with integrated CDMA and comes with a 1200mAh battery. MTS Duet features a 3MP camera, high-speed wireless tethering—mobile hotspot, an expandable memory slot of up to 32GB.

With the introductory unlimited data offer, customer gets unlimited free local calling and data usage for two months.

Price: ₹ 4799

