- 2 analog channels
- Up to 1 GS/s

Usually, entry-level instruments are as light in features as they are in price. TBS1062 Series (for Tektronix Basic Scope) makes it easier than to put an oscilloscope on every desktop. Tektronix reliability and performance enables engineering and technical support teams with the powerful diagnostic tools they need. Designed and manufactured by Tektronix, and backed by a 5-year warranty, the new oscilloscopes deliver excellent performance and accuracy with 1 GS/s or 500 MS/s sample rates and 3 percent DC gain accuracy down to 2 mV.
