

The event jointly organised by FHS Idealabs and EFY had an interesting line-up of companies, tech-gurus and electronics enthusiasts with path-breaking ideas in their minds.

Vendor Development Workshop by Ministry of Defence

Commander P.K. Bhattacharya from Ministry of Defence, government of India, discussed the opportunities available for Indian electronics manufacturing companies to be offset partners or vendors under defence offset policy.

Buyer-Seller Meet

The meet provided a unique platform for exhibitors to meet 16 large buyers of electronics products, services components and manufacturing equipment, LED lighting and components, and IoT hardware, among others. This year more than 100 meetings took place between buyers and sellers across three days.
