

Motorola launches Moto X Play

Smartphone with a customisable waterproof design

The latest smartphone from Motorola, Moto X Play, features a 21MP rear camera that captures clear images, even in low light. It has a 14cm (5.5-inch) full-HD 403ppi display and weighs 169 grams. The smartphone features Android 5.1.1 Lollipop operating system (OS) and Motorola Mobile Computing System including 1.7GHz Qualcomm Snapdragon 615 octa-core CPU, Adreno 405 550MHz GPU, natural language processor and contextual computing processor. It also features a 5MP front camera, 2GB RAM, 16GB/32GB of internal storage (expandable up to 128GB), near field communication and 3630mAh battery that is expected to last a full day, among others.

Price: ₹ 18,499

Power banks from YU

Power banks that are easy on the pocket

The new power banks, YU JYUICE, from YU come in two capacities, 5000mAh and 10,000mAh. The power banks launched exclusively on Snapdeal feature an LED indicator, li-polymer battery, USB adaptor as the power source and carry a warranty of six months. The 5000mAh model charges in three hours, whereas the 10,000mAh model takes six hours to charge.

Price: ₹ 599 for 5000mAh size

Full-HD TV from Intex

Paint the living room in vivid colours

The LED-4300 FHD TV from Intex features a screen size of 108cm (42.5-inch), native resolution of 1920 × 1080, smart power saving, built-in stereo speaker, digital noise reduction, full-HD video playability through USB 2.0 and Eye Safe T Matrix. It has two HDMI ports, two USB 2.0 ports, one PC audio input port (mini jack), one headphone port, one component port and one VGA input port. The LED TV is ROHS and BIS certified.

Price: ₹ 42,999

In-ear headphones by Bose

For premium audio, comfort and a secure fit

Bose SoundTrue Ultra in-ear headphones are small, lightweight for comfort and deliver a deep, rich sound across a wide frequency range. The sealed acoustic design provides an immersive listening experience to let you hear every detail of your music. Its sweat- and weather-resistant features help provide greater durability. It features a 3-button inline remote that lets you take calls or skip a track with the press of a button. The headphones come in black and grey colour variants.

Price: ₹ 11,138

