FEATURE-RICH CDMA PHONE

FLY MOBILE'S STYLISH C-250 GIVES YOU AN IMPRESSIVE TALK TIME OF EIGHT HOURS

With the launch of an 800MHz CDMA phone (model C-250), Fly Mobile wants to defy the general perception that CDMA phones are not as high on design and features as GSM phones.

Features and USP. The C-250 is a BREW (binary runtime environment for wireless) capable phone, which means it supports the application development platform created by Qualcomm that can download and run small programs for playing games, sending messages, sharing photos, etc.

It is a candy bar phone with 5.1cm QVGA screen that offers 65,000 colours with display resolution of 176x200 pixels. The 2-megapixel camera can capture images with a resolution of 1600x1200 pixels. The phone can be charged with the help of USB cable and the USB connectivity also allows you to use it as a flash drive for data storage as and when required. The expandable memory with the help of mini-SD card is 4 GB. The phone gives an impressive talk time of eight hours owing to better power management of its QC1110 chipset.
