Launching the models, George Meneses, Godrej chief operating officer for appliances division, said, "LED television is the future of television with a difference." Godrej had entered the consumer electronics space with the launch of CRT televisions in Andhra Pradesh in September 2008.

Fujifilm unveils 14 HD digital cameras

Fujifilm India has launched 14 HD-capable digital camera models under its FinePix range.

"At present, Fujifilm has around 3500 stores across the country and plans to almost double that number to 6000. It has closed the financial year 2009-10 with a market share of 5 per cent and hopes to double that too," informed A. Raj Kumar, country general manager, digital imaging, Fujifilm.

In terms of presence, the company has now reached Tier-B cities, other than metros. Only Tier-C cities are left out, where it is being choosy in launching its models.

LG trying to reinvent itself

LG Electronics is trying to change its image in India from a brand for the mass market to a brand that brings happiness to many lives by focusing on the softer aspects of living, says Moon Bum Shin, managing director, LG Electronics India. It will spend $5 million on marketing this year to communicate its new identity.

The company is also trying to get noticed as an up-market brand. Its recent campaigns and products such as Jazz LCD televisions and Chocolate mobile phones are an attempt to lure back those consumers who, over the years, have moved up the value chain.
