CDs Discontinued

Here is some good news for Electronics For You subscribers!

Subscribers to EFY Magazine can now read their Electronics For You magazine (e-zine) from anywhere through the Internet. They have to simply log on to ezine.efymag.com to read the latest issue even before the printed version reaches them.

We will be uploading the issue soon after sending it to the printing press. Subscribers can opt for SMS or email alerts, which will be sent soon after the e-zine is available online.

EFY subscribers will be able to access all the issues subscribed to till the expiry of their subscription. To access the e-zine, they will have to register on efymag.com using a unique login and password, which has been mailed to them.

This should rid of all problems related to delay or loss of magazine during transit, since the e-zine will always be accessible to subscribers. However, subscribers can still ask for the printed version of the magazine in case it gets lost in transit.

With the growing popularity of the Internet, the need for the CD accompanying your Electronics For You magazine had been diminishing. Besides, the CDs were getting damaged in transit and creating unpleasant situations. Hence, to improve the overall experience for our readers, we have decided to discontinue the CDs.

Simultaneously, saving in cost of the CDs is being passed on to subscribers by reducing price of the magazine from Rs 60 to Rs 50 only. Their subscription is therefore being extended proportionately.
