

SMARTPHONE

NOKIA'S BUSINESS AND GAMING SMARTPHONES WITH SYMBIAN ANNA

Nokia has launched two new smartphones—Nokia E6 and Nokia X7. The smartphones come with Symbian Anna, the latest update of the Symbian software user-experience, with new icons and usability enhancements such as improved text input, a faster browser, refreshed Ovi Maps and higher security.

Nokia E6 is 'touch and type' monoblock qwerty business smartphone. Designed using glass and stainless steel, the smartphone features enterprise grade security with hardware accelerated encryption and new e-mail features such as full meeting request support.

The Nokia X7 is an entertainment-focused smartphone with a 10.16cm (4-inch) display and an 8-megapixel camera. It comes preloaded with Galaxy on Fire HD and Asphalt 5 HD games.

Price: E6-₹ 18,679

Price: X7-₹ 22,829

TABLET

HTC FLYER TABLET WITH NATURAL TOUCH AND PEN INTERACTION

HTC has unveiled the HTC Flyer tablet. The company's first tablet with HTC Sense technology comes in an aluminium uni-body design with touch and pen interaction. The HTC Scribe technology introduces a wave of integrated digital ink innovations that make it easy to take notes, sign contracts, draw pictures, or even write on a webpage or photo.

The tablet comes with HTC Watch video service and OnLive—a cloud-based mobile gaming service. The ultra-light tablet is compact enough to fit in a jacket pocket. With a 17.78cm (7-inch) display, the HTC Flyer comes with a 1.5GHz processor and high-speed HSPA+ wireless capabilities.

Price: ₹ 39,890

MOBILE PHONE

MICROMAX'S VAN GOGH X450 PHONE WITH BUILT-IN BLUETOOTH HEADSET DEVICE

Micromax has launched its new phone Van Gogh X450 that integrates a dockable self-charging Bluetooth hands-free headset on the back of the phone in its sleek design.

The phone with 2-megapixel camera, sports a matt finish with a glossy front and a 6.6cm (2.6-inch) mirror-like TFT screen. It features a 3.5mm audio jack, 65k colour display, multi-format video and audio player, FM radio, dual-sim and expandable memory up to 8GB. Along with the phone comes a swappable back panel to change the look of your device as per your style.

Price: ₹ 3499

