

Electronics For You's EFY DESIGN ENGINEERS' CONFERENCE 2011

18th & 19th February 2011 • Pragati Maidan, New Delhi

EFY Design Conference is a step to provide a platform where the design engineers' community in India will get a chance to interact with their peers and international experts. The goal is to identify the thrust areas and emerging needs for a variety of applications and learn about cutting edge technologies.

Themes & Topics

- Cutting edge technologies: what's hot, what's not
- Innovative applications that India needs
- The processor technology: choosing the brain
- Design and simulation tools: develop with minimum resources
- Batteries: innovations and applications
- How to design a 'good' embedded software
- Micro-electro-mechanical systems(MEMS): future designs and cool applications
- Programmable devices: developments and applications
- Designing green products
- Open Source hardware: what it means to design engineers
