

Exhibitors' Testimonials”

"We are overwhelmed with the response we have received from our clients. Looking at the response, we have registered ourselves for EFY Expo 2012 right away. For the next year, we have booked a larger space than this time" —Deepak Deshmukh, director, Unisert Machines

"Our decision to participate in the event has worked wonders for us. We plan to exhibit in the next EFY Expo as well with more zeal and enthusiasm as the response this time has been positive" —Sanjeev Sehgal, managing director, Samridhi Automations

"We are happy with the response we have received at EFY Expo 2011. We have already registered for the next event. The kind of enquiries we have received, we are sure to convert them into good business" —Anil Gupta, managing director, Advance Tech Services

"We have received positive feedback from our clients and hope that this generates good business. We have already registered for the next event in 2012" —P.K. Sood, chairman, Regnant Energy Solutions

"The impact of the event has been quite satisfactory for us. We are among the early birds to get ourselves registered for the next show. We hope to get equally good response and business in the next exhibition as well" —A.K. Aggarwal, director, Agmatel India

"We are positive that the enquiries we have received at EFY Expo 2011 will generate good business for us" —Kumud Tyagi, vice president, Bergen Associates

"Our association with EFY has been long and our decision to participate in the event has benefited us to a large extent. We have generated good business. We plan to be there in the next event as well" —G.D. Saini, managing director, Singodia Electronics

"We are satisfied with the kind of response we received at EFY Expo 2011. We intend to continue our partnership with EFY Expo. We are also happy with the facilities provided at the Expo" —Aditi Chauhan, National Instruments
