The Research

Methodology

EFY Readers' Choice Awards. A total of 26 products were covered across consumer and industrial categories. Web-based and telephonic interviews were conducted by TNS with individuals, educational institutes and representatives of the electronics industry subscribing to EFY publications.

For arriving at the winners for the product category awards, a brand score was calculated based on three main criteria—ownership of the brand, satisfaction with the brand and intention of users to recommend that brand.

Jury Awards. The eminent Jury comprised senior executives from associations like ELCINA, MAIT, ISA, CII, TEMA, SESI, CMAI and LEDMA. A detailed set of criteria was used by the Jury members to evaluate the nominees.
