Tata DOCOMO launches video news alerts on your phone

Tata DOCOMO has launched a unique service called Video News Alert which will give breaking news alerts in the form of video clips. The alerts can be streamed, viewed and downloaded by both 2G and 3G subscribers on their mobile phones.

Using the service, subscribers can express their liking for a story, share their opinion on a story, participate in polls and do much more to voice their feelings and concerns. For offering this service, Tata DOCOMO has inked an exclusive partnership with Network 18.

NVIDIA helps transform the PC with Windows 8 Developer Program

NVIDIA has announced its Windows 8 Developer Program to provide developers with tools and resources for building applications for ARM and x86-based devices that will take advantage of Microsoft's Windows 8 operating system.

All four NVIDIA processor brands will support Windows 8. NVIDIA's next-generation, quad-core Tegra processor, code-named Project Kal-EI, is an ARM-based system on a chip that will power lightweight, energy-efficient tablets and notebooks. NVIDIA will support Windows 8 on x86 systems with its GeForce, Quadro and Tesla GPUs.

Huawei partners with ibibo to launch gaming applications
